MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Dulles

SUBJECT : President Roosevelt's Promises Regarding North African Independence

1. A search of CIA and State Department files made at your request reveals no firm evidence that President Roosevelt made any promises to help the French dependencies in North Africa gain their independence. Most of the legend on this subject centers about: (a) An after-dinner conversation between the President and Sultan Sidi Mohammed on 22 January 1943, and (b) A letter written by the President to the Sultan on 4 February 1943 (copy attached). Mr. Robert Murphy of the State Department who attended the dinner, but did not overhear the conversation, is inclined to believe that the President made no firm promises to the Sultan. No one else beside the President and the Sultan is known to have participated in this conversation.

2. The letter from the President to the Sultan is a very friendly one, inviting the latter to visit the Roosevelts in Washington. The Sultan has never made the letter public. A copy of the letter was made available to CIA by the State Department, which had obtained it from the Hyde Park archives.
